Description:

Immaculately presented, this restaurant has a very prominent, inviting double-width frontage with glazed double doors, glass side partitions and a perspex roof covering the terrace of 48m² (45 covers). Inside, the premises extend to another 100m² (20+ covers), with bright white walls, wooden beamed ceiling and a tiled floor. Elegantly decorated throughout, the dining area has a wooden dresser to one side, food display fridge, bottle fridge and feature wrought iron and china chandeliers. The bar area is fully equipped with stainless steel coolers, sink, coffee machine and grinder, wooden shelving, electronic till and music system. Between the bar and the kitchen at the rear of the premises is a small storeroom and to the other side of the restaurant, there are well appointed male and female washrooms. To the rear, there is a winning good sized and well equipped kitchen with
